

Grace for a power price hike.

Hospital debt

Latrobe Regional Hospital aims to review its elective surgery schedules in the wake of a $5 million lifeline from the State Government.

The hospital has been forced to cancel hundreds of hours of elective surgery, in an effort to address a $4 million budget deficit.