

Since 1877
Berry Street
We never give up

take two

Gippsland
Office

Photograph: shaun malla

Kids help kids this Christmas

A UTTE full of toys has helped bring some Christmas cheer to underprivileged families in the Latrobe Valley.

Welfare agencies Berry Street, Anglicare and St Vincent de Paul, and Latrobe Regional Hospital last week received a special delivery from B and S Country Ute Club members, just in time for Christmas.

Lots of stuffed toys, games, trucks, dolls, pencils and crayons, hampers of food and even a fish tank made up some of the gifts which were distributed to the agencies.

These were then given to needy families in the

Continued on page 2

Santa's helpers: Mitch and Samantha Holman and Claudia Cassar helped spread Christmas cheer to those less fortunate than themselves.